About Nature Collective

Founded in 1987, Nature Collective is a conservation and environmental education leader in San Diego County. Nature Collective works to restore habitats to provide healthier waters and greater wildlife diversity, and educate current and future generations to become aware of, appreciate, and act to protect the natural environments surrounding them. We think inclusively and diversely when serving our audiences and envision a world where everyone connects with, experiences, and protects nature. Our work spans San Diego County, with a long-term commitment to the San Elijo Lagoon Ecological Reserve and the Escondido Creek watershed.
